

BioCop

New Technologies to Screen Multiple Chemical Contaminants in Foods

BioCop Fellowship Scheme

Application Form

Please return completed application form to Dr. Chen Situ by email at c.situ@qub.ac.uk or by post to: Queen's University Belfast

IAFLU
David Keir Building
Stranmillis Road,
Belfast BT9 5AG
United Kingdom

Applications must be received by the 30th April 2008

Personal Details:

Title: Given Name (s):
Surname / Family Name:

Contact Details:

Address for correspondence:
Address line 1:
Address line 2:
Town / City:
Region:
Country:
Postcode:

Daytime telephone number:
Evening telephone number:
Fax:
Email:

Proposed place of visit (Location preference):

First preferred location (please specify):

Second preferred location (please specify):

Estimated cost:

Travel (Flights/Trains)

€

Subsistence

€

Purpose of proposed visit:

Brief description of planned visit to include:

1. Overall aim of the study visit
2. Outline work plan
3. Expected outcomes / benefits

Technologies in which training is requested :

Previous experience / skills:

BioCop

New Technologies to Screen Multiple Chemical Contaminants in Foods

Please indicate whether you are an “experienced” or “early” researcher:

Experienced – 4 years experience or more

Early – less than 4 years since graduation

Please highlight how your visit will add value/contribute to the scientific aims of the BioCop Project:

